Sub.: ATA Course - IN16ADFC01, "Advance Digital Forensic Consultation" course from 15/01/2018 to 19/01/2018 to be held at CDTS Hyderabad – Nomination reg.

Sir,

Kindly find enclosed herewith US Embassy letter dated 13/09/2017, regarding ATA – IN16ADFC01, "Advance Digital Forensic Consultation" to be organised from 15/1/2018 to 19/1/2018 at CDTS Hyderabad.

2. The course is designed for 12 experienced forensic investigators that have preferably attended Introduction to Digital Forensic and Investigation. The Advance Digital Forensic Consultation (ADFC) is a one week hands-on consultation that picks up where the Introduction to Digital Forensics Investigations (IDFI) left off, guiding the participants deeper into the Windows and Operating System and both, New Technology File System (NTFS) and File Allocation Table (FAT) File system. The ADFC continues with the theme of using open source applications and introduces additional tools that provide participants with the skills and knowledge to thoroughly examine windows evidence artefacts, correlate findings and differentiate supporting evidence from normal system files.

4. List of participants who have attended ATA – 11298 and ATA – 9508 on Introduction to Digital Forensic and Investigation Course held at NEPA Meghalaya and CDTS Jaipur respectively is enclosed. The concerned organizations are requested to nominate the above mentioned officers preferably so that they can become Master Trainers. However, in case that is not feasible due to the officer having superannuated then, other officer be nominated from the State Cyber-Crime Unit/ CFSL etc. These officers should have a good working knowledge of computer handling/applications/ internet use and also the
