

Inauguration of hostel, Varanasi

Police Cleanliness Week was organized by Chairperson, Vama Saarthi, at Reserve Police Lines, Varanasi, inaugurating newly built barrack / hostel in which group-wise painting exhibition, fancy dress, essay contest was organized by the children of the police family. Meritorious children were rewarded by the President while wishing their children a bright future. A meeting with the women of the police family was held in which their children were made aware through career counseling.

