RESPONSIBILITIES:

Under the direct supervision of the SPC Team Leader, Standing Police Capacity (SPC), Police Division, Office of Rule of Law and Security Institutions, DPO, the Transnational Crime Officer provides support and assistance in the field of combating transnational crime, organized crime, and other emerging crime issues, especially in post-conflict environments. Within the confines of SPC management and the strategic mission of UN Police, which is to help build institutional national police and other law enforcement capacities of the host states in post conflict environments, the incumbent works closely to assist the various international and national actors at headquarters and in the field to help design strategies, as well as assists in the development and implementation of projects and programme activities. When at SPC's duty-station of Brindisi, the incumbent assists in strategic and operational planning tasks, as well as in the evaluation of the needs and requirements of UN Police, host states national police and other law enforcement agencies that the UN Police are mandated to support. Within the framework of overall PD/SPC activities related to combating transnational organized crime, strengthening domestic police and other law enforcement capacities in the respective countries or mission areas, the incumbent works closely with UN Police; assists in advising national police and other law enforcement officials in planning, developing, and implementing police and other law enforcement strategies, programmes and activities to deal with transnational crime; noting the relevance of related measures of cooperation among judicial and law enforcement authorities and inter-agency cooperation; and, assists in the preparation of proposals on how the SPC together with UN Police can provide specialized institutional capacity-building assistance in these areas.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement and community safety, including assessing threat to human security, as well as analyzing gaps, identifying standards, and developing plans for capacity-building of law enforcement agencies; ability to plan, develop, implement and monitor programmes, projects and activities in the field of combating transnational crime; knowledge of the current trends, relevant international/regional protocols and comprehensive understanding of the development practices in the field of combatting transnational and organized crime; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills; and, ability to identify and participate in the resolution of complex issues and problems. Commitment to implementing the goal of gender equality by ensuring the equal participation and full involvement of women and men in all aspects of peace operations. Planning and Organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

OUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in Law, Criminology, Social Sciences, or another relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications and extensive experience in combating transnational, serious and organized crime may be acceptable in lieu of the advanced University degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or other similar law enforcement training institution is required. Work Experience: A minimum of five years of active policing experience in a national police or other law enforcement agency at the strategic, operational and administrative levels, including at least three years of experience in anti-transnational crime and anti-organized crime policy-making and implementation is required. Experience in UN peacekeeping missions, other similar international organizations is required. Experience in the use of modern Internet-based research methodologies and sources is desirable.
