RESPONSIBILITIES

In compliance with the mission mandate and under the supervision and substantive guidance of the Deputy Police Commissioner the Community Policing Adviser will be responsible for, but not limited to, the performance of the following duties:

- Provide national-level management, accountability, and oversight of all community policing initiatives in alignment with the UNMISS mandate and UNPOL strategic objectives. Review, evaluate, and enhance existing processes, projects, and programmes to ensure their continued relevance, efficiency, and compliance with mission strategies, policies, and procedures.
- Lead the design and implementation of efficient community policing and engagement policies, including targeted strategies to address violence linked to cattle raiding and associated sexual and gender-based violence.
- Develop and execute strategies to prevent electoral violence and promote participation of women, minorities, and vulnerable groups in the electoral process.
- Lead the review and implementation of the Community-Oriented Policing Strategy at national and local levels, ensuring adherence to the Human Rights Due Diligence Policy and integration of crosscutting priorities, including gender equality, child protection, and the protection of vulnerable persons.
- Contribute to the formulation of policies, procedures, and guidance that support police reform, institutional development, and alignment with international policing standards.
- Oversee the design, delivery, and monitoring of comprehensive capacity-building programmes, encompassing basic, specialized, and on-the-job training, for the professionalization of the host-state police.
- Foster police—community partnerships through sensitization activities, Police Community Relations Committees, and regular dialogue platforms to set policing priorities with active involvement of community and traditional leaders.
- Strengthen mechanisms for monitoring police compliance with human rights obligations and develop HRDDP-compliant projects that advance judicial processes and address issues such as sexual and gender-based violence.

- Manage quick-impact projects and other initiatives promoting sustainable police and community development.
- Provide strategic advice to national counterparts, UNPOL leadership, and stakeholders to ensure coordinated and sustainable UNMISS mandated approaches.
- Perform any other duties and assume other responsibilities as may be directed by the UNMISS Police Commissioner through the established chain of command.

COMPETENCIES

- Professionalism: Shows pride in work and achievements; demonstrates professional competence and mastery of subject matter: is conscientious and efficient in meeting commitments, observing deadlines and achieving results; is motivated by professional rather than personal concerns; shows persistence when faced with difficult problems or challenges; remains calm in stressful situations. Takes responsibility for incorporating gender perspectives and ensuring the equal participation of women and men in all areas of work. Knowledge and understanding of theories, concepts and approaches relevant to democratic policing, law enforcement; experience in planning, development and implementation of policing guidance, ability to apply technical expertise to resolve police related issues and challenges; strong organizational skills and a demonstrated ability to establish priorities.
- Planning and organizing: Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work: foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently.
- Client Orientation: Considers all those to whom services are provided to be "clients" and seeks to see things from clients' point of view: establishes and maintain productive partnerships with clients by gaining their trust and respect, identifies clients' needs and matches them to appropriate solutions; monitors ongoing developments inside and outside the clients' environment to be informed and be able to anticipate problems; keeps clients informed of progress or setbacks in projects; meets timeline for delivery of products or services to client; resolves conflicts by pursuing mutually agreeable solutions.

QUALIFICATIONS

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in one or more of the following disciplines: Law, Criminal Justice Administration, International Relations, Business or Public Administration, Political Science, Development Studies (particularly in law enforcement) or another relevant field. In accordance with the Policy on Human Rights Screening of UN Personnel, all individuals who seek to serve with the United Nations are requested to make "self-attestation" that s/he has not committed any serious criminal offences and has not been involved in violations of international human rights or international humanitarian law. The exact wording of the self-attestation is outlined in para. 5.2 of the above-mentioned Policy. The final decision on the selection of an individual to serve with the United Nations will also be subject to human rights screening.

HEADQUARTERS I SIEGE | NEW YORK, NY 10017

REFERENCE: DPO/OROLSI/PD/2025/0164

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission to the United Nations and has the honor to refer to the requirement for Police Officers currently in active service. In this regard, the Department of Peace Operations (DPO) is seeking the nomination of candidates for appointment on secondment to the United Nations Mission in the Republic of South Sudan (UNMISS) for an initial period of one year with a possibility of extension for a second and third year. In exceptional circumstances, the secondment to that position may be extended for a fourth year, but not longer. Post is available through the issuance of the Job Opening 2025-UNMISS-82442-DPO, which is posted for a period of 60 days effective 15 August 2025. The closing date for the Job Openings is 15 October 2025.

The nomination procedures, along with all forms to be completed are included in this package. It is kindly requested that all documentation be submitted electronically to the Selection and Recruitment Section (SRS) at the following email address: agnessa.ryabikina@un.org.

Applications received after the deadline specified on the Job Opening will not be accepted.

As the posts require the expertise of police officers in active service, the Permanent Mission is kindly requested to confirm that selected candidate(s) will be released, in a timely manner, from their national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. The Permanent Mission is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is clearly indicated on the application.

In addition, it is strongly recommended that the Permanent Mission submit only those candidates who fully meet all requirements for the positions as described in the Job Opening.

The United Nations Secretariat would like to inform the Permanent Mission that in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates approved for placement in the roster, may be selected for positions with similar functions (same functional title and level), without the issuance of a new Job Opening.

Candidates will remain in the roster for a period of two years after the first day of the month following the selection decision by the Head of the Department.

It should be noted that during their secondment to the United Nations, police personnel are not eligible for reassignment or transfer to any other seconded position within the peace operations or the UN Secretariat. Active-duty seconded personnel may serve under a UN staff contract for a period of up to three years (cumulative), which, in exceptional cases, can be extended for a fourth and final year subject to operational needs and satisfactory performance. This service limit includes periods of any prior services with the United Nations as an active-duty seconded officer under a UN staff contract.

Candidates who have previously served as active-duty seconded personnel may reapply after a break in service of at least one year from their last secondment under a UN staff contract, subject to the contract limitation outlined above.

Nominations of currently serving active-duty seconded police personnel on a UN staff contract will not be considered.

Candidates must meet all the requirements of the Job Opening at the time of nomination in order to be considered for the position.

HEADQUARTIES | SIEGE | NEW YORK, NY 10017

The nomination of women candidates is strongly encouraged.

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns regarding the record and performance of the police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoking its acceptance of such personnel to serve in United Nations peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, excluding minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecution(s) concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by accoromission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance policy to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country.

The United Nations Secret triat would like to avail of this opportunity to inform the Permanent Mission that staff members are subject to the authority of the Secretary-General and thereby are subject to the United Nations Staff Regulations and Staff Rules. In this context attention is drawn to Staff Regulation 1.2 (i), whereby "no staff member shall accept any honor, decoration, favor, gift or remuneration from any Covernment".

The Permanent Mission is encouraged to nominate qualified women candidates.

This request is being transmitted to all Member States.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

15 August 2025

Special Notice:

Circulation of this Job Opening is limited to the Member States of the United Nations. Only police personnel who are currently employed in their national police service and who have received authorization from their respective national authority to apply for this Job Opening, will be considered.

Please note that during their secondment to the United Nations, police personnel are not eligible for reassignment or transfer to any other seconded position in peace operations or the UN Secretariat.

Active-duty seconded personnel may serve under a UN staff contract for a period of up to three years (cumulative), which, in exceptional cases, can be extended for a fourth and final year subject to operational needs and satisfactory performance. This service limit includes periods of any prior services with the United Nations as an active-duty seconded officer under a UN staff contract.

Candidates who have previously served as active-duty seconded personnel may reapply after a break in service of at least one year from their last secondment under a UN staff contract, subject to the contract limitation as indicated above.

Nominations of currently serving active-duty seconded police personnel on a UN staff contract will not be considered.

Candidates must meet all the requirements of the Job Opening at the time of nomination in order to be considered for the position.

Nominations of women candidates are strongly encouraged.
