Subject: Invitation of nominations for three day Criminal Justice Advocacy Course at National Law University Delhi from 24-26 March 2015

Dear Sir,

National Law University, Delhi (NLU) is a premier law University established in India currently offering a five year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) degree programme, LL.M, Ph.D. and Post Graduate Diploma programmes in specialized areas of law. It has a vibrant academic community of scholars in constitutional law, criminal law, human rights, labour law, environmental law, internet governance, clinical legal education and other fields of law.

National Law University, Delhi is proposing to offer a short three day Criminal Justice Advocacy Course for the diverse Criminal Justice Advocacy functionaries such as police, prosecutors, advocates, prison officials and courts. This course will specially focus on the recent apex court rulings such as State of Gujarat Vs. Kishanbhai (2014) 5 SCC 108, Arunesh Kumar Vs. State of Bihar (2014) 4 SC 273 and Bim Singh Vs. Union of India SC Order dated 05/09/2014. These and other cases have become important as Hon'ble apex court has given concrete directions for different functionaries in them. Therefore, the course will not only appreciate the legal aspects of these rulings but also examine the challenges that arise in the strict compliance.

The proposed three day course is scheduled to be held on 24, 25 and 26 March 2015. You are requested to nominate upto three functionaries from your department, who would stand to benefit from this very useful short duration course.

On hearing from you, NLU Delhi will make the necessary boarding and lodging arrangements at its guest house.

You are requested to kindly send your response within a week.

With regards,

ADG, Tng/14 (Karmik)

Yours sincerely

(G.S. Bajpai)
