D. O. No. 19-4/64/2015/448
Dated 12/6/15

Dear Arvind,

An advance training programme on "Bilateral international Cooperation (Mutual Legal Assistance and Extradition) between India and USA" is proposed during July/August, at US Department of Justice (USDOJ), Washington. The training programme is of one week duration. It is decided by MHA that 7 officers of Indian Law Enforcement/Regulatory agencies will be nominated for this first phase.

Imp:

The officers/attorneys of US DOJ, American Law Enforcement/Regulatory agencies will make presentations on American Criminal Justice System, legal provisions in American Law to facilitate Mutual Legal Assistance (MLA) and Extradition, procedures/protocols adopted by US Central Authority for execution of Indian requests as well as templates for making requests of MLA and Extradition. The training Programme aims at appropriate drafting of Indian letters of requests for Mutual Legal Assistance and Extradition to USA in order to ensure their expeditious execution.
