My dear Yadav,

As you are aware, the Hon'ble Prime Minister has enunciated the concept of SMART Policing in his inaugural address at DGP/IGP Conference held at Guwahati in 2014.

2. As a sequel to that, BPR&D organised four regional conferences wherein various States showcased various innovative practices in different areas of police functioning. BPR&D now proposes to bring out a special issue of Indian Police Journal (IPJ) on the subject and we plan to publish articles on the concept of smart and people-friendly police as well as practices initiated by various States towards this direction. This issue is intended to serve as a reference for States to emulate and implement relevant practices in their respective jurisdictions.

3. I shall be grateful if you or senior officers working in your State could contribute articles on the subject and especially relating to innovative practices or initiatives taken by individual police officers or the State.

4. The word-processed articles in hard and soft copy may be sent by November 15, 2015 to the Editor, Indian Police Journal, BPR&D, Block No. 11, 3rd Floor, CGO Complex, Lodhi Road, New Delhi-110003; Tel.: 011-24362402; email: editoripj@bprd.nic.in, with a copy to igmod@bprd.nic.in.

With regards,

14553

Sec.I

Yours sincerely,

mmmm

Guidelines (Notes for Contributors)

Editorial Objectives

The journal covers articles of general police interest as well as research papers based on empirical data pertaining to police work. Authentic stories of criminal case successfully worked out with the help of scientific aids and techniques are also published. Only original manuscripts are accepted for publication. Articles submitted to the journal should be original contributions and should not be under consideration for any other publication at the same time. A certificate to this effect should invariably accompany the article.

Areas covered include

Crime, criminology, forensic science, forensic medicine, police organization, law & order, cyber-crime, computer crime, organized crime, white collar crime, crime against women, juvenile delinquency, human resource development, police reforms, organizational restructuring, performance appraisal, social defence, police housing, police training, human rights. Insurgency, intelligence, corruption, terrorism etc.

The Review Process

Every article received for publication is subject to the following review procedures:

1. It is reviewed by the editor for general suitability for publication.
2. If it is found suitable, it undergoes a review process by a member of our Board of Referees.
3. Based on the recommendations of the reviewers, the Editorial Board decides whether to accept the particular article as it is, or seek revision, or reject.

Manuscripts Requirements

The manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate in double line spacing with wide margins. Articles should ordinarily be between 2000 and 4000 words in length. Title of the article should be precise. Authors should also supply an abstract of 100-150 words with keywords. A copy of the article saved in floppy/CD in MS-Word may be send in addition. Contributors are advised to be very brief in introducing the subject and devote most of the paper to the main theme. Authors should take care to ensure accuracy of the data and references. Quotes should be cited accurately from the original source, should not be edited and should refer to the page numbers of the original publication. Capitalization should be kept to the minimum and should be consistent. British spellings should be used rather than American. The typed script may please be carefully scrutinized for typing errors before dispatch. A brief autobiographical note should also be supplied including full name, designation, postal address with

Mob. Number and e-mail address, if any. Figures, charts and diagrams, should be kept to a minimum and good quality originals must be provided. At the end of the article a reference list and a short bibliography would enhance acceptability of the contribution. The contributions can also be e-mailed, in addition to being sent by post.

Copyright

Authors submitting articles for publication must warrant that the work is not an infringement of any existing copyright and will indemnify the publisher against any breach of such warranty. Papers and contributions published in the journal become the legal copyright of the publisher unless otherwise agreed.
